Process in ART .- "There is cheating in all trades but un," says the boot-black; and never have we seen this swerb better illustrated than while, a few days since, our Berce. On our first glance at the picture we thought that rerecgnized an old acquaintance; and upon particular manipation we were at once convinced of a portion of the reseace of our brave old friend, Gen. Zachary Taylor verily, this is the age of humbug, and so must have thought or artist when he took in hand the mezzotint of Gen. Tayor, "burnished" out the head, and a few ornamental ac esseties, and put in their stead the right handsome and complacent profile of our present President, Franklin Perce. Without the alteration of a line, from the cravat bite tees of his boots, the chair he sits in and the "gray posequil." from shoulder to shoulder, coat buttons and om, they are each and all in every particular deal de same. Verily, a cheap way of illustrating our 'attables.' And for aught we see, the old plate, altered Elecost of $50, is just as good for the occasion as one from an original painting by one of our best artists, en mand at an expense of $500.

NEW-YORK VOLUNTEERS .- A meeting of the remnant of this Regiment was held last night at the Mercer House, cor. ner of Mercer and Broove st. Capt, Fairchild was called to the Chair, and Se gt. Ross was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman stated that he did not know for what purpose the meeting had been called, but having seen the noice in the papers he considered it his duty to attend. Sergeant Ross said that this meeting had been called by a few who felt that the remnant of a body of men who had acted so nobly, and conferred no small honor on the country, were not well treated by their fellow citizens. It was true, some sympathy had been shown and a good many things projosed, but nothing effective had been done and although places had been promised to such men as could fill them on the Crystal Palace Police, and other departments, only ten men had as yet got employment. It was stated that a good many had been provided for, and this had a tendency to lessen the sympathy of the public in their behalf. Some papers had been greatly misled in this respect, and he trusted the truth would be made known. They did not ask for board—that would cost three dollars per day—but only to be employed, in order to earn their own livelihood; but the sympathy of the people of New York was given more to foreigners than to their own people, who had lost their health in endeavoring to uphold the rights and honor of the country. The claims of the Volunteers had before been brought forward, and great things were promised; but a new excitement drove them ont of the minds of their countrymen; and it would hardly be believed that those who had been received with such lavish honors on their return from Mexico, would have been in want of the common necessaries of life in the City of New-York, as many of them had been. He moved that a Committee be appointed to consult on the best mode of keeping the claims of the Volunteers before the public. The Chairman said, in his mind, the volunteers have been teo much before the public already. They have been receiving performances and benefits which, in the end, have amounted to nothing. He was told by many friends of the regiment that the best thing which could be done was to give up all this sort of-matter, and let a regular working Committee be appointed to get up a petition to the State Legislature and also to Congress, and that a pension would be at once granted to these men and whatever the public owed them, it was in that way it should be paid, and not by the Common Council, or by the County of New-York. The Controller had the highest respect for the Volunteers, yet he (Capt. F.) knew that he was sorry he had paid the $1,000 he had given them, for he had done so illegally.

A rember, whose name we did not learn, said he thought the officers of the regiment had not paid as much attention as they were bound to do to the members.

Capt. Fairchild-I have paid every attention I could to sober men, but I say now, and I say it openly, I will sign no paper for any but a sober and deserving man. The Common Council are doing all they can to get employment for our men, but everything cannot be done at once, and we should have patience. Col. Burnett, it was hoped, would be able to do something for the men after a few days. He would recommend that no action be taken on the subject for a little longer. After some further conversation, it was agreed to take no action at present on the subject, and the meeting adjourned to Monday night next. NEW-YORK VOLUNTEERS.—The Committee of Arrangements for the Meagher Lecture met last evening at the Astor House. The Lecture is to be given by Mr. Maugher, at Metropolitan Hall, on Wednesday evening next, for the benefit of the sick and disabled of this gallant body of men. the leading men of the Army, Legislature, Bar, and Mercantile professions of our City.

The meeting was called to order by the appointment of Gen. Hall to the chair, Col. W. C. Whitehead, Secretary.

stated the objects of the meeting, and that the subject of the Lecture would be "Young Ireland: Ireland in 1848;" an address on the Revolutionary parties, principles and cenes in 1848.

The price of tickets have been fixed at $50 cents, reserv d scats $1, which may be obtained at the Hotels and usic Stores. Contributions in aid of this noble object will be received by Col. J. C. Burnham, at Hall's Music Store, No. 239 Broadway.

Generals Scott, Wool and Shields, are expected to be upon the platform. The Ushers at the Lecture will consist of some twenty of the Volunteers in their uniforms. > LITHOGRAPHIC PRINTERS' UNION .- A meeting of this pody was held last night at the Crystal, Grand st., for the purpose of receiving the report of the Committee appointed it a former meeting to wait on the employers with the list of prices. Mr. James Dickson was called to the chair, and Richard Shephard, Secretary. The Secretary read the report, which stated that the following employers had agreed the prices demanded : Endicotte & Co., Carrier & Co. Doty & Bergen, Miller & Boyle, Francis Thitchelin, and Mr. Heippenhammer. A letter was read from Mr. Julius bien, highly approving of the movement of the Society, and stating that the workingmen of the trade were de-manding nothing but what the state of society required: that he would give the prices asked, and do anything in his power to advance the interests of the trade. It was stated by the Secretary that there were some others whom he Committee were unable to see. A vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Bien and the other employers from whom avorable answers were received, and the meeting then adourned to Monday night next, in order to give the Comnittee time to bring in a full report.

Bullar, Assault,-Yesterday afternoon, as two gentlemen were driving up the Eighth av. they lost their whip; on ascertaining the fact they drove back to look for it; a little girl told them that the driver of the car which had just passed them picked it up. They at once drove after the car, and on coming up with it at Fifty firstst, one of them alighted and going to the car civiliy re-quested the driver to return the lost whip to him, as he was the owner; the driver denied all knowledge of it; the gentleman insisted that he had it, whereupon the driver commeneed a furious attack on the gentleman, getting his head into what is termed "chancery," and dragged him into the car which was empty, and beat him shocking-ly about the face and head; and not content with this got han down and kicked him in a most brutal manner. A large crowd of rowdies entered the car and incited the fellow to further violence by advising him to give him a few . - kicks, and that would settle him. After he had beaten him to his satisfaction, he hustled him from the ear, and dealt him a severe kick at the same time and then ran off down a by-street. At this ignoture, Officer J. G. Mulford, Nineteenth Ward, arrived, and on searching in the car beneath the cushion, he found the whip under the cushion, which the driver had picked up. The name of the driver is Joseph Galliard, alias French Joe. The num ber of the car is 18, and the time 5] c'clock P.M. Ourreporter was present and saw the whole affair, which was one of the most barefaced and brutal assaults which has been perpetrated for a long time.

From personal observation, we are well satisfied that, although there are some good men in their service, the Eighth-av. Railroad Company—whether knowingly or notwe cannot say—have in their employ some of the worst ruffisos that ever disgraced the City. If they have any regard for law, order or public safety, they will displace these short boys" and here decent if not honest men.

CIRCUSES,-There are in the United States twenty-two raveling circus companies, all prosperous, and composed of the most daring and splendid riders and vaulters in the world, whose feats literally outvie those of Olympic games, The American character in its intrepidity is as fully shown in the peripatetic audacity of these companies as in the more renowned functions of pioneership or war. The selfgoverning force of the people is also fully centerd in their economics. For example: Twenty odd companies traveling about would naturally, without some arrangement forbidding it, cross the paths of one another. In France this would be regulated by the Goverement, and some one would be decorated and pensioned for his immense services in that way. Here we manage the thing better. The circus di rectors, like the physicians, geologists, philauthropists, &c., have their spontaneous congresses. There they consider acteristic.

A book, highly interesting, novel, suggestive, and with deep political signification, might be made up of the intrinste self-governing arrangements of companies and professions of whatever kind in this country. It would teach many a doubting American much that he never dreamed of, and show that Oxenstierna, the Chancellor of Christina of Sweden, was right when he said, "Go, my son, on your travels, and see how little wisdom it takes to govern the world." The world on this side of the water is self-governed, and proves the want of the wisdom which submits to Euroand proves the want of the wisdom which submits to Euro

Gentlemen: The Commissioners of Immigation have received and given the most respectful consideration to the received and given the most respectful consideration to the resolutions of the Governors of the Alms House of May 4, 1853, in relation to the Insane Immigrants chargeable to this Commission and now supported at the Asylum of the Governors at a stipulated rate.

It has been a subject of great, though unavoidable, regret to the Commissioners that the unusual and messpected expenses of the long and severe winter of 1851-1852, contracted chiefly by the relief and support of alian poor who would otherwise have failen immediately upon the City and its Alms House Department, have caused a large arrestage of payments for the support of the alien insane in the City Alms House institutions, under the contract between the Governors of that Department and this Commission. The same cause has also led to a similar 'delay in refunding to the other counties of this State their advances for alien poor who have paid their commutation money.

It is now confidently trust of that the increase of commutation by the last Session for the repayment to the counties, and the relief thus afforded to the general fund will, with the present increased immigration, enable the Commissioners to discharge all the claims of the counties, and also of the Governorr of the Alms-House during the present summer.

the Governorr of the Alms-House during the present sum way "disregarded the pretection" of any of those persons whom the Governors of the Aims II use refer to as those over whom "they are without means or authority to conover whom "they are without means or authority to continue their guardianship."

By the general laws since May, 1846, regulating the action of this Commission, all alien poor in any county, (not excepting the City and County of New York,) when requiring relief, and not otherwise provided for by the establishments or officers of this Commission, are left under the general laws for the relief and support of the poor, to be cared for, as other poor, by the local authorities. For such expenses this Commission is directed to "reunburse the several cities, towns and counties" from the commutation money, "as far as may be."

To this general operation of the law, the City of New-York, as above intimated, forms no exception, although it has been found, expedient to provide here for all sick or destitute immigrants other than the insane, in our own institu-lestitute immigrants other than the insane, in our own institu-ions; and with regard to the insane, to substitute a specific outract, for mutual convenience, with the Alms House Department, instead of leaving them to be received, as other City poor, in the institutions under charge of the Governors, and afterward to reimburse to the City, as to other counties, the expense incurred for them, according to the means of the Commission.

If, therefore, it be the pleasure of the Governors of the Alms-House to put an end to the express contract now expense.

Amis-House to plit an end to the express contract now existing, the Commissioners of Immigration will make no objection, although they consider the present arrangement more convenient and advantageous for all interested.

The insene alien poor in the City Asylum would in that case be discharged on the 1st June, as far as relates to the present arrangement. But as the Commissioners have not at present, and cannot have for some time to come, any building a child real present. onliding in which such unformbate persons can be recoived and placed under proper sanitory care, they now give no ice to the Governors of the Alms House that such persons most be received by the proper officers, as in other coun-most be received by the proper officers, as in other coun-ties, accounts for the expenditure thas incurred for persons laying paid commutation daily rendered, and reimburse-ment therefor will be made by the Commissioners accord-

The arrearages for former account for the support of such persons will be paid as early as possible out of the ex-cess of the income of the general fined above the carrent expenses of the establishment of this Commission.

The Commissioners of Immigration take this occasion of calling the attention of the Governors of the Alm+House to the consideration of another subject which has been repeatedly brought before the Governors without any definite action thereupon: at least so far as the Commissioners have been informed.

Independently of the charges which the law allows to be et off against "any expenses incurred by any city, town or ounty," which it is trusted there will be no necessity to county," which it is trusted there will be no necessity to apply, there is another equitable claim of the commutation fund against the Alms House Department, which is of long standing and is regularly increasing. The commutation fund has constantly borne the expense of a large number of infancy, (and many of them after they passed the period of infancy,) the children of alien mothers, but born in this City and County, and as mative citizens emittled to the aid of our poor laws. For some of these cases, when illegitimate, compensation has been entained from other quarters, but the great majority are not of that class. The impropriety of separating the child from the parent in any propriety of separating the child from the parent in any case, and the impropriety of doing so in many cases, must prevent a general removal of such minute from our institutions to those of the Alms House Department. In some, and in the aggregate not a few instances, it might perhaps be done.

By the hooks at Ward's Island it appears that from Jan. 1, 1850, to April 30, 1853, there were born in the establishments on that Island 1,300 infants, who were admitted at the charge of this commission and cared for, for 7,170 weeks in the aggregate. Besides these, there was a number previous to 1850, the amount of which cannot be so precisely ascertained, and also it is believed a considerable number, born in the City and afterward, while still very young, received into the establishment at Ward's Island, some orphane, others with their mothers.

The Commissioners have always thought that the fund

The Commissioners have always thought that the fund under their charke was entitled to some equitable allowance from the Governors of the Alms House, for the expenses thus incurred, being such as are not paid by this Commission in other Counties, whenever the expenses for the support, clothing, &c., of the child can be discriminated from those of the mother.

ted from those of the mother.

It is suggested that a reference of this subject to a joint Committee of the two Boards, or to the decision and adjustment of two gentlemen, one to be chosen by each Board, would settle the principle of adjusting this account, the details of which can then be made out with more precision by

HANDSOME PRESENTATION -The Conductors of the Eighth-av. Railroad Company met last evening at Martin's Piessure House in Forty-ninth-st, near Eighth-av., and presented Mr. James Wallace, an employee of the Company, with an elegant gold watch, as a token of their esteem for him as a gentleman and a friend. After the presentation a hardsome collation was partaken of by the company.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT —Patrick Sullivan, an employée of the Eric Railroad Company, was run over at Hampton, Orange Co., on Tuesday last, by a train of cars and died in an hour and a half afterward from the injuries received. It appears that he ran ahead of a train for the purpose of cautioning another train which was approaching from an opposite direction, and when the train behind came up he attempted to get upon it but missed his hold and fell upon the track. He was a native of Ireland, 24 years of age, and had been in the employ of the Company about three years. Coroner O'Donnell hell an in pany about three years. Supplex Drafth.—A German named Albert Metschee' who strived in this city from Europe about two weeks since, died suddenly at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, at the Fourteenth Ward Police Station. Coroner Withelm held an inquest upon the body, when it appeared in evidence that the deceased, on Wednesday afternoon, met with a party of his friends at the public house No. 29 Howard st., where he drank quite freely. In the evening they visited several other places about town, and about 2 o'clock in the morning the deceased was found in a helpless condition, by Officer Palmer of the Fourteenth Ward, at the corner of Grand-st and Broadway. He was taken to the Station House, where he died about two hours afterward. He was 40 years of age, and had heretofore been a temperate man. The Coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death by apoplexy.

AREEST OF a FUGITIVE.—A German named Henry Walstein was yesterday arrested by Officer Powell, of the Third Ward, charged with having recently stolen about $300 worth of ready-made clothing and other goods from the store of David Woolf, in Peughkeepsie, Dutshess County. Mr. Woolf states that having occasion to leave Poughkeepsie for a few days he placed his store in charge of the accused, who, while he was absent, sold the goods, pocketed the proceeds and came to this City. On his arrest, $200 were found concealed in his boots. He was taken before Justice Begart and committed, preparatory to being sent back to Poughkeepsie. back to Poughkeepsie. A Hard Case.—Officer Mansfield, of the Lower Police Court, yesterday arrested a German doctor named Grossman, en a charge of having, by false representations, obtained the sum of $400, from a fellow countryman of his. Grossman, who is in very indigent circumstances, and who had by some friends been furnished with the means of taking his sick wife to Europe, whither he was to sall this morning, was almost beside himself when he thus saw his list prospects blasted. After waiting for some time at the Police Office, Mr. Lexow, editor of a German newspaper, happened to drop in, and on hearing the particulars of the case, according to which the offense charged was a mere debt, he paid the money to the complainant, and the magistrate, in consideration of this, discharged the defendant, who can now travel in peace.

For ND DROWNED — Coroner O Donnell yesterday held an inquest at Pier No. 31, East River, upon the body of a man, named John Anderson, who was found drowned at that place. WILLIAMSBURGH ITEMS.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE WILLIAMSBURGH CITY TEMPERance Society.—The first Anniversary of this Society was held last evening at the M. E. Church in North Fifth 4., the President, W. H. Harmer, in the chair. The meeting was commenced by singing by the choir, and prayer. The Secretary, Alfred Parker, then made a report of the doings of the Society, from which it appears that 307 persons have taken the pledge and joined this Society. The expenses incurred have been $112.35, while the receipts have been but $190.17, thus leaving the Society in arrays $3.18. In taken the pledge and joined this Society. The expenses incurred have been $112 35, while the receipts have been but $109 17, thus leaving the Society now exhibits a healthy aspect very encouraging to the friends of Temperance, and with real and perseverance on the part of its members it may yet be made the honored instrument, in part at least, of extirpating from their young city that deadly playing the Retail Liquor Traffic.

After the report, the President introduced Rev. W. F. Collins, formerly of Williamsburgh.

He said the time was when the subject of temperance was treated lightly; but the time has come when this subject should be treated with seriousness, soberness, candor and toil. Since there has been such a combined influence of capitalists to encourage the liquor traffic, and to countermand the influence the temperance movement has already exerted, it would not do longer to look upon this subject lightly, but we must take hold of the work in sober ear nestness; we must have the Maine Law. Some think this law too stringent, while others think it not sufficiently stringent. He would not argue this point. In one State its beneticial influence had been seen and leit. He also spoke at some length on the argument brought forward by the opponents of the Maine Law, of the injustice done to liquor dealers by depriving them of their legitimate means of livelihood, and throwing them upon the world perhaps penniless. This, he argued, is not the case, as it is well known that many of them are living in their princely mansions, built upon the wreck of human beings. Even if this class of persons are so reduced by this "legitimate means of livelihood" as to be compelled to earn an honest livelihood, who are more deserving to be compelled to toil. It is estimated that there are at present in this country about 20,000 besorted drunkards; it is certain that they cannot be redeemed, unless the temptation be removed beyond their reach. What then is the duty of every voter? They should be mismated by the find of their con but as it had become certain that this mode of reform had not succeeded, he now believed the strong arm of the law should be interposed.

During the services, about 15 persons were confirmed; after which, the sacrament was administered by the Bishop, aided by the Rector. After the service, a liberal collection was taken up for the purchase of a beil for this church. The edifice is situated a few rods north of the Corners. It is seventy five feet in depth, including the chancel, by thirty five in width, and about thirty five feet in hight to be ridge. It is of stone, 26 feet long, 35 feet wide, and 32 feet high—and is built in a plain, substantial manner. It is composed of chancel and nave, with clear story and aisles. The clear story is supported by eight tall octagen brown stone pillars. The editice is lighted by ten large windows of stained glass, with brown stone quarter foils. Theroof is covered with Welsh slate. A massive tower is in course of erection, which is to be 120 feet high, and surmounted by a stone spire.
